Remittance notice for Additional Special Benefits (child addition) for low-income child-rearing households in 2023

- This is to notify that, if you have received the Temporary Special Benefit (70,000 yen/household) for households exempt from residential tax, and if you have any children at the age of 18 or younger (born on or after April 2, 2005) in the same household, you will be provided 50,000 yen per child.
- The children eligible for the benefit are as shown on the left.
- The payment will be made to the same account on the left used when the Temporary Special Benefit was paid to households exempt from residential tax, so please do not close the account or change the name until the payment is completed. Please note that if you close the account or change the name, you will not be able to receive the benefit on the payment date written below.

Payment date: April 5, 2024 (Fri.) (scheduled)
